For the Seder Plate

Charoset

Hard-boiled egg

Maror (use a bitter lettuce or other bitter leaves)

Horseradish (ghrain)

Karpas (use celery, parsley or a boiled potato)

Shankbone (can use a chicken wing)

Extras for the Table

Wine

Extra goblet of wine for Elijah the Prophet

Seder Plate

Extra seating and tables

Haggadot for the whole family (remind your guests to bring theirs)

Cover for the Matzah and afikoman (with 3 compartments)

Salt water

Candles

Nuts, chocolates and fruit for an edible center-piece for your table (Helps keep hunger at bay. Make sure all chocolates are parev)

Flowers

Kosher for Pesach Items

Matzah of all types according to your belief or tradition

Matzah meal

Self-raising cake flour

Kneidelach mix

Potato noodles

Fish (Gefilte or Chreime, Herrings, Salmon)

Meat (beef or lamb)

Poultry

Potatoes

Kitniyot (according to your tradition)

Quinoa

Oil

Olive Oil

Vinegar

Eggs (lots of them)

Sugar (powdered for mousse, meringues and other desserts and regular for other)

Desiccated coconut

Disposable Items

Tablecloths

Napkins (serviettes)

Soup bowls

Small plates for entree and possibly desert

Large plates for main course

Desert bowls

Salad bowls

Roasting pans

Cutlery (knives, forks, soup/desert spoons, tea spoons, serving spoons and forks)

Cups for cold-drinks

Wine glasses

Cups for hot drinks

Paper towels & new kitchen towels

Tin foil

Cling wrap

Wet wipes (always useful for special clean ups)

Salads

Hummous and Tehina (according to your tradition)

Assorted pickles

Vegetable salad

Green or French salad (make or buy a salad dressing)

Potato salad

Cabbage (coleslaw, red or pickled cabbage)

Matbucha and Eggplant salads

Extras _____

Extras _____

Drinks

Cold drinks

Wine for Kiddush and socializing

Grape juice

Other alcoholic beverages like Arak or Brandy (no beer or whiskey)

Water

Extras _____

Extras _____

Fruit & Vegetables

Lots of potatoes

Onions (white, red, shallots, spring onions and chives)

Carrots

Cucumbers

Tomatoes

Lettuce & leaves

Garlic

Lemon

Sweet potatoes (batata)

Desserts

Fruit in season (for a fruit salad)

Chocolate mousse (parev chocolate, sugar, eggs, parev whip)

Coconut cakes

Fruit compote (an assortment of dried fruits)

Stewed apples & pears (Granny Smith apples give best results)